great wines from the world's greatest houses

maison sichel — france

Produced by legendary Maison Sichel, Château Argadens has been called one of the region's best-kept secrets since its revitalization in 2002. Argadens opts for Integrated Farming—as this is in line with Sichel's values, among which, respect for the environment plays a fundamental role. Château Argadens was one of the very 1st Bordeaux vineyards to be certified ISO 14001, in 2011, and obtained HVE 3 certification in 2014.

château argadens bordeaux supérieur rouge 2015

A rich, modern-styled Bordeaux with accessible, delicious fruit. Hints of spice, leather, cassis, and plum. The palate is balanced and well-structured with a fine, elegant, lengthy finish. A best-value, top quality Bordeaux, from an estate of the region's most iconic producers.

“...great purity and classicism...brawny and structured...elegant dark fruit and cassis spiked with bright cherry...Brazil nut and toasted tobacco... Punches above its price.” 94 pts —CEH, Toronto Star
