bodegas muga — spain

Founded in 1932 and still family owned, Bodegas Muga is one of the classic estates of the region. Focused on Rosés with hallmark Rioja terroir and classic Rioja-styled reds endowed with finesse and elegance, Muga is one of the few wineries in the world that has its own cooperage.

rosé rioja 2018

A gorgeous, approachable rosé. Captivating nose with hints of stone fruit (ripe apricot!) and pastry/bakery notes. What follows on the palate is fresh and strikingly clean with good acidity and a long finish. Beautiful in the glass or pairs with generous versatility—from sushi and ceviche to pastas, risottos, and salads.

60% Garnacha, 30% Viura & 10% Tempranillo
