ARGENTINA

ALTOS LAS HORMIGAS, MENDOZA

Malbec Classico 2019 ETA: Coming Soon

Luis Gutiérrez wrote: “Their bread-and-butter red 2019 Malbec Clásico wants to show, through an early harvest and an élevage without oak, that not all Malbec from Mendoza is jammy. 2019 was much warmer than 2018, and the grapes developed full flavors like they haven’t seen for years. It’s mostly grapes from Luján de Cuyo and a small percentage from the Valle de Uco, mostly from their estate vineyards, from parts with limestone in the soils. The hand-harvested grapes fermented in stainless steel with native yeasts, and the wine matured in concrete vats for nine months. It’s floral and expressive, clean and varietal, juicy, fruit-driven and very easy to drink.” 90 Pts – Robert Parker’s Wine Advocate

Tinto 2019 ETA: Coming Soon

A blend of Malbec, Bonarda, and Semillon grapes, harvested by hand. Careful, double sorting process, before fermentation. Malbec and Semillon grapes are harvested early and co-fermented, in order to soften the tannins, enhance the aromas, and have more complexity on the nose. Bonarda is vinified separately before the final blend, which is done a couple of months before bottling in order to keep the freshness of each one of the components. Fermentation takes place in separate stainless steel tanks, Only indigenous yeasts are involved in the process. The wine is then aged for a minimum of 9 months in concrete vats. No oak aging.

James Suckling wrote: “Aromas of currants, blackberries, pumpkin seeds, dried herbs and black olives. It’s medium-bodied with fine tannins and fresh acidity. Juicy, saline finish. Delicious now.” 92 Pts

AUSTRALIA

BROWN BROTHERS, VICTORIA

The Windmill Shiraz 2019 $18.95

Intense aromas of black currants, blackberries, bay leaves and dried herbs. Full, juicy taste of forest fruits, plums, cherries, eucalyptus and a whisper of chocolate. A proper Shiraz.

HAMELIN BAY, MARGARET RIVER

Rampant Red, 2019 $24.95

Coming off the Five Ashes Vineyard in southern Margaret River, the 2019 Rampant Red is a blend of 90% Shiraz and 10% Cabernet Sauvignon. Deep red with purple hues, bouquet of blackberries, candied raspberry with hints of smoke and coffee. On the palate dry, full bodied with a bust of raspberry fruit, spice and toffee flavours that mingle with some smokiness and toasted oak. Hamelin Bay’s symbol is the heraldic beast called a wyvern, which is shown in full sway or rampant on this label. It suggests the wine has an exuberant spirit and lively character.

AUSTRIA

WEINGUT RABL, KAMPTAL

Gruner Veltliner Spiegel 2019 $22.95

62% Grenache, 19% Syrah, 6% Counoise, 13% other (Cinsault, Muscardin, Mourvèdre). “Dark in color, smoke, incense and spice are the first things that greet you. From there you move to the dark cherry side of life. There is a tannic backbone here, due to the reliance of Syrah that means you will need to age this wine for at least a few years, before the freshness and sweet, red fruits are further developed. 91 Pts – James Suckling

E. GUIGAL, RHÔNE VALLEY

Limoncello di Sorrento IGP 700ml ETA: Coming Soon

6/case

With its unmistakable scent and brilliant colour, the Ovale Sorrentine Femminiello lemon (native to the Sorrento peninsula) yields the truest expression of genuine Limoncello. The "varietal" lemon of the peninsula that – thanks to its shape, size, and thick skin that is rich in aromatic oils – produces such an infinitely concentrated flavour that its peels are the only necessary ingredient (well, that and a bit of alcohol, sugar and ascorbic acid). 32% ABV.

GIUSTI WINE, VENETO

Amarone della Valpolicella Classico DOCG 2015 $112.00

6/case

"An Amarone with lots of dried fruit, such as berries and plums, as well as some chocolate walnut and mushroom. It's medium-bodied and not overpowering, with balance and focus that gives the wine an enticing nature. It's almost delicate at the end, but has polished tannins that add beauty to the wine. Drink or hold."

The Padelletti are one of the oldest families in the city of Montalcino and have owned vineyards since 1572. Producing just 8000 bottles of Brunello per year this truly boutique winery is now garnering the attention and accolades from the press that it deserves.

The Brunello is crafted from approximately 30-year-old vines while the older ones go into the Riserva (in the years one is made). This is a transparent and elegant wine that soars in 2015. Fragrant violet, lavender and mint blossom lead the way to a complex palate of succulent red berries, mineral and sous-bois. There is lovely focus, fluid and smooth with fine, powdery tannins that will lend effortless support for at least a decade."

97 Pts – Decanter, February 2020

Very easy to drink and appealing, could be described as a 'mini--Super Tuscan'. A full and vibrant fragrant aromatic ensemble of Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot grapes ripened under the sun of the Maremma, representing the power, depth, colour, refinement and aromas characteristics of a Super Tuscan. Rust en Vrede Cabernet Sauvignon 2018 $58.95

6/case

Crimson red, there’s a certain sweetness to the aromas packed with ripe, wild strawberry, red and black cherries, mulberries and black currant. Nice and pure Helderberg fruit. Vinho Verde DOC 2019 $16.95

“This quinta is located near Celorico de Basto, in the hills above the Tamega River, inland from the sea and close to the border with Vila Real. It’s clean fragrant, with enough weight to the blend – arinto, azal and trjadura – to pour it with grilled chicken. Best Buy – Years Best Vinho Verdes, 90 Pts – Josh Greene, Wine & Spirits

Cabernet Sauvignon, Contra Costa /Sonoma County 2018 $31.50

The 2018 Cline Cabernet Sauvignon is a unique blend of Sonoma County and Contra Costa County fruit. Grapes were handpicked at the peak of ripeness, underwent total destemming and a very gentle crush to ensure a large proportion of whole berries were left in the must. Fermentation occurred in stainless steel tanks with native yeasts, and maintained at the ideal temperature to aid in the extraction of flavour and color. The wine was pressed off its skins at dryness before being racked to lightly-toasted American Oak (100% new) where it gently aged for eight months.

Limited Edition 'Whimsy' Zweigelt 2019 $34.80

This will be the one and only bottling of this wine. After the harvest in 2019 these old Zweigelt vines were ripped up by the vineyard owner to re-plant another varietal. The wine shows a lively, vibrant purple colour with aromas of blueberry, dark cherries, black plums and spice. The palate is dry, light and refreshing, delivering lingering flavours of cacao and dark cherries.

Laundry Vineyard Chardonnay 2017 $34.80

Hand harvested from old vines (25 yrs) in the Lincoln Lakeshore sub appellation, this mixed clonal block ripened slowly through a cool growing season and cool fall temperatures. Whole clusters were gently pressure using our "long, slow" press cycle and slightly settled juice was transferred to 300 L used French oak for wild yeast and malolactic fermentation. Five selected barrels were blended after 10 months to make this single vineyard wine. One barrel was new French oak - 25% new wood

Laundry Vineyard Gamay 2018 $29.95

"Gamay from Heather Laundry's Vinemount Vineyard is lithe as it has never been from which incidentally is a very fresh vintage breath of go-varietal-go air. Go forth with gamay and prosper when the lightness of being is such that it is right here because you can sip and sip and sip without care or worry. Is that not the point? Crunchy and tart, transparent and unassuming. Vinemount sub-appellation gamay at its finest. Drink 2019-2020. Tasted December 2019" 90 Pts – Michael Godel, Wine Align

Laundry Vineyard Pinot Noir 2017 $34.80

"The whole cluster content is 60-70 per cent, really at the peak of style for Niagara wines and yet the nose is more giving and florally generous than you might anticipate. The fruit from Heather Laundry's farm is full of grace and charm for '17, in phenolic accord with all the other parts. Sweet palate presence confirms the movement and the results for this way of making pinot noir. Very youthful, with savoury stickiness and pulsating on the palate. Some chewy texture is a good foil and the length is granted. A top example that shows when your seeds and stems turn brown you can take the risk and add major complexity to your pinot noir. Drink 2020-2025" 92 Pts – Michael Godel, Wine Align

Ice Wine Organic Vidal 2015 375ml $54.90

"The most unusually brick red-orange hue makes this vidal Icewine a one-of-a-kind wonder and the best news of all is how complex the wine is to follow suit. Yes the curiosity factor runs high but so do the gamut of aromatics and flavours. Coffee, toffee, crème brûlée, apricot, guava and strangely enough the spongy filling of a Crunchie Bar. What a childhood memory that digs up. Acids are strong, relevant and still humming so the sugars are carried along with great companionship. Benchmark vidal usage and to no surprise. Ann Sperling's work with varietal orange wine combined with her knowledge of Icewine make for a union divine. Drink 2019-2025." 95 Pts – Michael Godel, Wine Align

Whimsy "The Anniversary" Fortified $29.75

Whether you love dry sherry and madeira, or have never tried a fortified wine, The Anniversary will surprise and delight. Aged Chardonnay underwent controlled oxidation in barrel for 7+ years, taking on intriguing flavours of nuts and dried fruits. Pair with cheese and nut plates after dinner, or start the evening with The Anniversary over ice and muddled mint. Stable for months after opening.

Framboise 375ml $19.95

"This multi winning wine is produced entirely from Royalty Raspberries. Lovely ruby hue with fresh raspberry aromas. Nice medium body. The wine is finished sweet, with a slight tart edge with a long fruit finish. As a result, it is one of the few wines that can marry well with chocolate desserts. It can definitely enhance your summer cocktails, including mixing it with Champagne to create the classic 'Kir Royale'" 92 Pts – Liz Palmer
